DECEMBER
2018

November 13, 2018 Minutes

Mickey Martlock called the meeting to order. Present: Dick & Barbara Kowalazyk, Jacque Thompson, Anna Herrmann, Rosita White, Emily Clare, Fay Gibeau, Gwen Kuehn, Susan Johnson, Mali Thomas, Jeanette Mateer.

Minutes of the September meeting were approved as printed in the newsletter. Rosita White and Gwen Kuehn supported the motion.

Treasurer's Report approved subject to audit.

The newsletter with these minutes will be sent in late December. Email and post card reminders will be sent out prior to the April meeting. As Emily Clare posts events over the winter, emails will be sent to Friends with email addresses. Those who have not provided an email are asked to do so as it does enable us to contact you with library happenings and occasionally Mark requests messages be sent out to the membership, usually regarding a legislative issue affecting our library. Also email saves us $.50 per newsletter.

Gwen Kuehn announced the Book Nook schedule for December and will soon post the sign up sheets for January and February. This year with the support of our new members we hope to remain open throughout the winter unless the weather does not cooperate.

Emily Clare, standing in for Mark Bronson began the Director's Report. Our library is part of the growing PAC2 consortium. This expands the resources available to our patrons.

New library hours include Sunday afternoons (1-5) and opening two mornings (Thursday / Friday) at 8am.

The Library Board had authorized upgrades to the circulation technology including self-checkout plus genealogy room improvements, and more accessibility to past editions of the Cheboygan Tribune.

The 2019 budget includes expanded programming. A Comic Con event will be held throughout February and have events for all ages. Emily will keep us informed as new events are scheduled.

New staff members, Jill and Liz will be working upstairs. Sarah has picked up the duties of Linda who retired after 27 years of service to the library.

Nancy and Abbie set up a Festival of Books give-away for Trick or Treat kids at Halloween. Books distributed were from donations to the library.

Santa will be coming to the library, Dec. 5, 4:30 to 6:30. Gwen Kuehn purchased $213.00 in mostly board books as part of the Gift of Reading. The Great Start ladies will be on hand with a craft table and Rosita White will distribute candy canes. Rosita White and Mickey Martlock will be on hand for the evening and cleanup. Laurie Musclow from Secrets on Main has volunteered to be Mrs. Claus. Jacque Thompson, Mali Thomas, Gwen Kuehn and Jeanette Mateer will set up the book tables in the afternoon.

The Friends bylaws will read as follows after approval by the Library Board and Friends at the April meeting:

Section 3. Officers shall be elected by majority vote of those present at the Annual Meeting for the term of two years, but for not more than two successive terms. However, the number of terms the Treasurer may serve is at the discretion of the membership. The election of the President office (options in Section 1) will be held in alternate years from the election of the Secretary and Treasurer.

The Friends fundraiser for 2019 will be a ReDazzle Jewelry Sale in Sept.. Donations can be made starting in April: more information will be available after the June meeting. Pat Hubbard will be in charge of this event.

Meeting adjourned at 2pm

Funding For Special Projects

A big thank you to Barbara Clay and Kenneth Bernstein, Life members of the Friends since 2010, who have continued to support the Friends and the Library though they reside in Dallas, Texas. They have continued to make annual donations to our Friends group.

Since 2015 they have donated over $3,400.00 to the Library providing support for various projects including the Children's Garden, Little Bits, the digital sign in the lobby and most recently the new MakerSpace which is currently available for use but will be fully redesigned and equipped in 2019.
